Re: Update to BEEP 3.0 – Desktop Version

Attached please find an announcement from the American Cooperative Council on Compensation Technology (ACCCT) regarding an update to the desktop version of BEEP 3.0. The update addresses several issues that had been reported by users, including the correction of various edit routines.

Please note that this update applies only to the desktop version of BEEP and not the web-based version of BEEP.

Further information concerning this update can be found on ACCCT’s website at www.accct.org.

Very Truly Yours,

Monte Almer

President
NOTICE TO DESKTOP BEEP USERS
PATCH TO UPDATE BEEP 3.0 – DESKTOP VERSION

November 30, 2004

This announcement is intended for customers using the Desktop version of BEEP. It does not impact those using the Web-based BEEP 1.0. As a reminder, the desktop BEEP 3.0 is distributed via the ACCCT Web site, but should not be confused with the Web-based BEEP.

NOTE: Please remember to periodically check the What’s New link found on the ACCCT home page for all ACCCT product updates. Significant changes or enhancements are also typically announced via circular.

An upgrade, or patch, has been developed to allow you to update your Desktop BEEP 3.0. The upgrade corrects various reported issues pertaining to the functions of Desktop BEEP. Some of the upgrade includes:

• Corrections to edits that were not functioning properly
• Modification to the formatting of the Experience Modification field to correctly position the decimal point
• Amended the Replacement Indicator field applicability to include MA and MN
• Corrected the Calculate function

You will find the update on the ACCCT Web site at www.accct.org. Desktop BEEP information is found on the ACCCT home page under the section titled Desktop BEEP. To install the patch locate and select the Click here to install the BEEP 3.0 upgrade link. We strongly encourage that you install this update to achieve optimum response and modified requirements.

For a variety of reasons, we would encourage you to move to the Web-based BEEP, but we are sensitive to the fact that not all of our customers are prepared to move to that product at this time. If you are interested in reviewing the Web-based BEEP product please visit https://www.accct.org/beep/help.pdf. This is the link to the BEEP User Guide, which will provide additional information about the product. You will also find contact information for each of the ACCCT participants so if you have questions, please contact your representative.
ACCCT looks forward to continuing to provide quality products to assist the Workers Compensation community in the area of electronic data exchange.
