Re: Release of Research Brief on the COVID-19 Pandemic

Members of the Rating Board:

I write to inform you that the Rating Board has released a Research Brief on the COVID-19 pandemic's impact on the New York State workers' compensation system. The study provides a framework for understanding and estimating the direct impact of COVID-19 claims on medical and indemnity costs in the State's workers' compensation system.

I invite you to view and download the Research Brief on the Rating Board's COVID-19 Resources web page. The Rating Board remains committed to providing the marketplace with further research and analysis as more information becomes known.

Very truly yours,
