Re: Presentations, Reports, and Studies
2022 Workers' Compensation Forum

Members of the Rating Board:

I write to invite you to view video recordings of the presentations made at the 2022 Workers' Compensation Forum, along with the associated reports and studies, on the Rating Board's website. These videos include (a) a message from the Chair of the Board of Governors; (b) my opening remarks; (c) the 2022 State of the System presentation; (d) an update on the New York State economy from Bruce Bergman, an economist at the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics; (e) the 2022 Loss Development presentation; and (f) a learning session on upcoming changes to the New York experience rating program.

I look forward to continuing our work together.

Very truly yours,
